Duty of Disclosure

This Policy is subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. Under that Act you have a Duty of Disclosure.

Before you take out insurance with us, you have a duty to tell us of everything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to our decision to insure you and to the terms of that insurance. If you are not sure whether something is relevant you should inform us anyway.

You have the same duty to inform us of those things before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate your contract of insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters that:

- reduce the risk
- are common knowledge
- we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know, or
- we have indicated we do not want to know.

If you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to:

- reduce our liability for any claim
- cancel the contract, or
- refuse to pay the claim
- avoid the contract from its beginning, if your non-disclosure was fraudulent.

If you are not registered for GST in the event of a claim we will reimburse you the GST component in addition to the amount that we pay. The amount that we are liable to pay under this Policy will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim for the supply of goods or services covered by that payment.

If you are entitled to an input tax credit for the premium, you must inform us of the extent of that entitlement at or before the time you make a claim under this Policy. We will not indemnify you for any GST liability, fines or penalties that arise from or are attributable to your failure to notify us of your entitlement (or correct entitlement) to an input credit on the premium.

If you are liable to pay an excess under this Policy, the amount payable will be calculated after deduction of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim on payment of the excess.
